Senior Class History

Shakespeare once wrote — "Parting is such sweet sorrow." Never before have I believed him as strongly as I do now; for you can't say good-by without remembering the things you're leaving behind.

Do you remember how the girls all squealed when we disected frogs in biology and the way we looked when we were initiated into the G.A.A. and the "D" club? — and those term papers! People began believing that there was an epidemic of writer's cramp, when we wrote "The Life of Christ", "The War Between the States", and "The United Nations".

What fun we had in band and choir — the concerts we gave, the contests we went to, the trips to the Ohio State ball games; all the people we met and the friends we made.

Our class had a lot of school spirit. We had students in every extra-curricular activity. We could be proud of our class scholastically too; twelve were members of the National Honor Society; eight took the scholarship tests at Van Wert.

Do you remember how we rushed to meet the deadline when we put out the Re-Echo; the fun we had building our yearbook?

I can still hear the low laughter and see the soft lights and crepe paper at our dances — the proms — the Y-teen dances.

I remember the dignity of the Homecoming — the breathless excitement we all felt when we presented our class plays — how proud we were when we became conference "champs" in football.

Remember our class parties and picnics? The fun we had in the boats we rented at St. Mary's Lake — everyone was soaked to the skin — and the sunburns we got that day!

I can't remember our teachers without thinking how much of a miracle it was that they could take forty-four arrogant, brazen "Indians" and four years later have forty-four responsible, fairly intelligent, adults.

Remember how happy we were when we got our class rings — and the mixed feelings we experienced the day we got our caps and gowns?

Then came Baccalaureate and Commencement and all too soon our high school careers ended. So now I guess there's nothing left to say except thanks — for the memories.

The Society of Books

"Books are keys to wisdom's treasure" . . . and we, as student librarians, under the able supervision of Miss Mabel Rogers, try to keep the library in good physical shape, accession books, issue them, and take care of the encyclopedias and bulletin boards, and send notices to those who have books that are overdue.

Our library consists of 3667 books and subscribes to 45 magazines. We have filmstrips in our library on various subjects such as science, history, Latin, English, social studies, and current problems of the week.

Concert Band

"Oh, we're the band from D.H.S. you hear so much about" . . . and no wonder! We practiced hard those first weeks of school, preparing our shows for the Friday night ballgames. As a reward, the band took a trip to Columbus and watched the Ohio State "Buckeyes" defeat the Iowa "Hawkeyes."

No sooner had football season ended than we were practicing concert band and ensemble music. Our required contest numbers this year were "Gloriole" and "Metropolis." The band played "The Barber of Seville" and "Come, Sweet Death" as their selected numbers. They also presented a Christmas program and a Spring concert.

Ten groups went to the district ensemble contest. They were: a clarinet quartet; a woodwind quintet; a French horn quartet; a brass sextet; three trumpet soloists; a saxophone quartet; a drum ensemble and a bassoon soloist. They all did very well and made Jefferson proud of them.

Four of our members were given the privilege of playing in the band and the orchestra at the district Music Festival.

The band page would be incomplete without mentioning our dance band which furnishes the music for us at our post-ballgame dances and the intermediate band which plays at our class plays. Both contribute great services to their school and deserve much credit.

Speaking of credit, who deserves it more than our director Mr. Zoll and the members of the Band Mothers? We certainly appreciate their help and leadership.

Choir

A group of students who love to sing – that's the Jefferson choir. The main project of the year was getting ready for contest. The required number was "Oh Send Thy Light Forth," and they sang "God So Loved the World" as their selected number.

A girls glee club was begun and they too journeyed to contest. Their required number was "The Forty-Second Psalm" and their selected number was "The Norwegian Cradle Song."

We were well represented at the district ensemble contest with two girls choral groups, four soloists, and a boys quartet. They included: Karen Berry, Diane Strayer, Judy Schmelzer, JoAnn Jettinghoff, Marilyn Burgess and Sandra Gonyea in a girls sextet; Linda Terry, Jeannine Pitsenbarger, Sue Porter, Joan Dienstberger, Sandra Jenkins, Judy Brittingham, Mary Alice Redmon, Carol Wells, and Louise Brenneman in another choral group; and Don Macwhinney, Gary Korn, Stanley Peltier, and Tom Fosnaught in a boys quartet. The soloists were Karen Berry, Diane Strayer, Judy Schmelzer, and Stanley Peltier.

We are proud that eight of our choir members were also able to attend and sing in the choir at the district Music Festival.

Preparing for contest kept us very busy, but not too busy to present an impressive and beautiful Christmas concert, "Christmas Treasures," and a gay, refreshing, Spring concert which featured many songs from the musical, "Oklahoma."

The choir also sang at church services, assemblies, the annual Mother's Day program, and ended the year singing at the commencement exercises.

Much credit should be given to Mr. Herbert Gruenke our director, who, through great patience and hard work, made this year a successful one.

The three act comedy, "Bottoms Up" takes place on a small college campus. The time is that of choosing the campus queen. "Learning to do,
Doing to learn,
Earning to live,
Living to serve" . . .

this, the motto of the Future Farmers of America, states the general purpose of the F. F. A.

Vocational Agriculture teaches, mainly by practical experience, the essential factors of life on the farm; the care and necessary facts about farm animals, how to manage a farm effectively and efficiently, and the proper care and use of machinery on the farm.

Each boy must keep a record of his required project which usually concerns animals, crops, or improvement projects.

The members of the F. F. A. participate in state contests such as public speaking, parliamentary procedure, farm shop safety, land judging, poultry judging, meat judging, and general livestock judging.

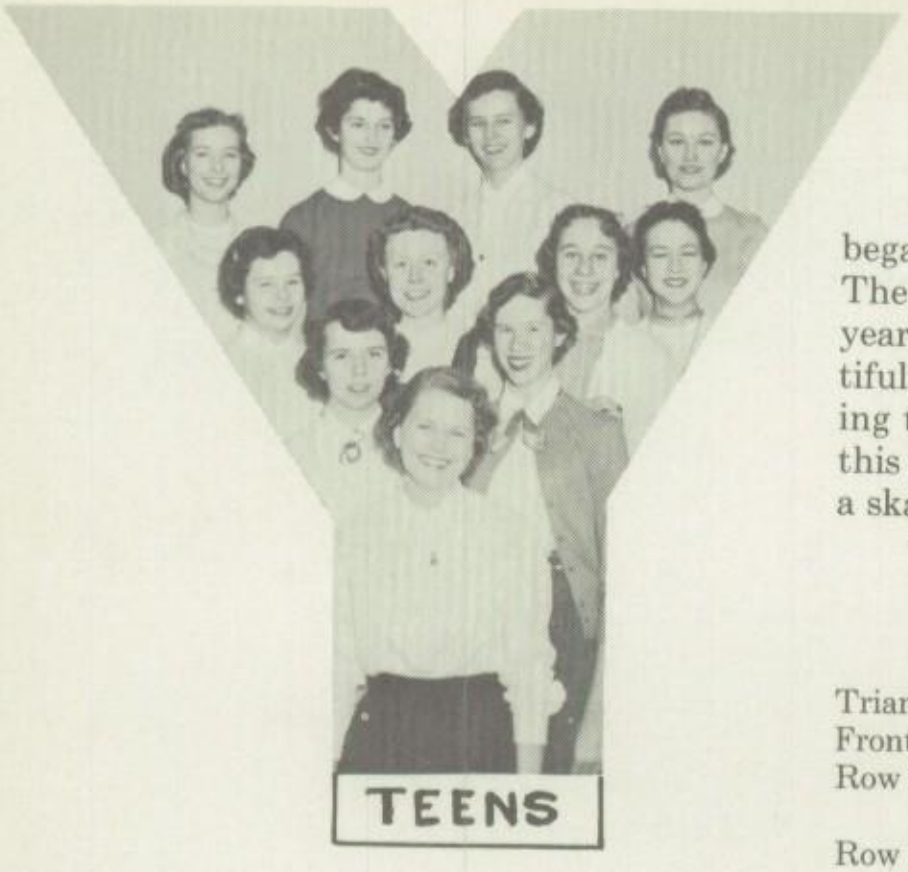
The Science Club this year added Magic and Ventriloquism to its groups of Photography, Astronomy, and Radio. Mr. Hull, a new teacher at Jefferson, became the club's advisor.

Activities of the year consisted of a Roller Skating Party, a trip to Bowling Green for Science Day, and the many group projects.

The club, affiliated with Science Clubs of America, worked on a project for Infantile Paralysis.

This year for the first time our Science Club adopted a song and colors. The song is entitled "When Science Club Is Meeting" and is sung to the tune of "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling." The colors are red and gray.



Y-Teens

The Y-Teens, under the capable direction of Miss Friedrick, began the school year with their traditional candle light initiation. The girls at once started on plans for the main social event of the year, the annual Y-Teen Dance which was held in December. Beautifully tinted stars, couples dancing on clouds, and a stairway reaching to the sky were the decorations for this dance. The theme for this gala affair was, "Stairway to the Stars." Other activities were a skating party and a Mother-Daughter Banquet.

The code of the Y-Teens is;

As a Y-Teen I will try to be:

Gracious in manner
Impartial in judgment
Ready for service
Loyal to friends

Reaching toward the best
Earnest in purpose
Seeing the beautiful
Eager for knowledge

Reverent to God
Victorious over self
Ever dependable
Sincere at all times

G.A.A.

The Jefferson High School Girls' Ahtletic Association, under the direction of Mrs. Strayer, is part of a national organization, formed for the purpose of teaching sportsmanship, leadership, and sociability.

For those girls who are especially interested in organized athletics, G.A.A. has become an important part of school life. Contrary to popular belief, the boys are not the only ones who are active in athletics. Some of the sports the girls participate in are softball, volleyball, basketball, bowling, and ping-pong.

Short skirts, braided hair, and blackened eyes; these were a few of the initiation requirements for the freshman girls.

The main social events of the year are the annual G.A.A. Athletic Banquet, at which occasion all athletes of the school are honored, and the annual May picnic, at which the girls are awarded their letters.

Homecoming

Queen Sherry Stienecker
Attendants: Joan Jettinghoff
and Sandra Gonyea

A blond and two brownettes — the student's choice for the homecoming court — reigned majestically over the festivities. The pre-game ceremonies were as exciting as ever, as the queen, Miss Sherry Stienecker, attended by the Misses Jo Ann Jettinghoff and Sandra Gonyea, were driven around the field in a shining blue and white Dodge convertible. The queen and her court were then escorted to their throne by three members of the football team, Gary Fritz and co-captains Gary Korn and Keith Ayers. After the game, a dance was held in the gaily decorated music room where Sherry was crowned Queen of the Homecoming.

After suffering several key injuries in pre-season practice, Jeff dropped the season opener with Columbus Grove 21 to 20 in the last eight seconds. Injuries continued to plague the Wildcats and as a result the first team played only one quarter together all season. However, with fight, and able substitutes coming on, the team continued to develop under Head Coach Paul Krotzer and his assistants Kenneth Woodring and Vernon Hull. They ended the season strong with a 5-3 record.
